S. MEHEULA
ACQUITTEDEnd of Case From Legislature
of 1903.Sale of Hawaiian Hotel
Property Judicially
Confirmed.Scrimgeour Heirs Get Money.
Cyclomere Tract.-Custody of Child.

Solomon Meheula was found not guilty of gross cheat yesterday afternoon, the jury returning its verdict at 4:54 after an absence of about two hours. Judge De Bolt forthwith discharged the defendant. W. S. Fleming of the Attorney General's Department conducted the prosecution and C. W. Ashford the defense. Meheula was charged with having cashed vouchers of the House of Representatives, while he was its secretary in 1903, for Hawaiian law books, at $15 apiece, which he did not deliver. About all the members of the House of that year were witnesses, together with a great many others.

HOTEL SALE CONFIRMED.

Judge Robinson yesterday signed an order confirming the sale of the property of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel Co., Ltd., on the report of M. T. Simonton, commissioner, who was directed to execute a good and sufficient deed to the purchaser, Hawaiian Trust Co., Ltd. The Fisher, Ables Co., Ltd., conducted the auction sale and the price was $95,000. A deficiency judgment for $65,191.15 against the defendant company was ordered to be entered. The commissioner was allowed a fee of $1250. His proceedings in the matter were highly commended by the court and counsel on both sides, every detail having been properly attended to and not a hitch from first to last having occurred.

HEIRS GET THE INSURANCE.

An order of final distribution, approving accounts and discharging administrator, David Dayton, in the matter of the estate of A. B. Scrimgeour, deceased, was made yesterday by Judge Robinson. It is decided that the sum of $2985 collected from the Western Masons' Mutual Life Association constitutes no part of the estate of deceased, and ordered that the said sum be paid to Allan R. Scrimgeour and Harold A. Scrimgeour, the legal heirs and next of kin of deceased. It is further ordered that the administrator pay the balance in his hands, after payment of costs, pro rata to the creditors. The estate will pay about 25 cents on the dollar.

PIONEER STOCK APPRECIATION.

Judge Lindsay confirmed the sale of 56 shares of stock of the Pioneer Mill should know. The troubles with multitudes of girls is a want of proper nourishment and enough of it. Now-a-days they call this condition by the learned name of Anemia. But words change no facts. There are thousands of girls of this kind anywhere between childhood and young ladyhood. Disease finds most of its victims among them. Some of them are passing through the mysterious changes which lead up to maturity and need especial watchfulness and care. Alas, how many break down at this critical period; the story of such losses is the saddest in the history of home. The proper treatment might have saved most of these household treasures, if the mothers had only known of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION and given it to their daughters, they would have grown to be strong and healthy women. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anemia, Scrofula, Rickets, and Bone and Blood diseases, nothing equals it; its tonic qualities are of the highest order. A Medical Institution says: "We have used your preparation in treating children for coughs, colds and inflammation; its application has never failed us in any case, even the most aggravated bordering on pneumonia." The more it is used the less will be the ravages of disease from infancy to old age. It is both a food and a medicine,—modern, scientific, effective from the first dose, and never deceives or disappoints. "There is no doubt about it." Sold by all chemists here and throughout the world.

MOTHERS

NO MORE HEADACHE

GENERAL WEAKNESS AND FEVER DISAPPEAR TOO.

How a Woman was Freed from Troubles
That Had Made Life Wretched for Many Years.

The immediate causes of headaches vary, but most of them come from poor or poisoned blood. In anaemia the blood is scanty or thin; the nerves are imperfectly nourished and pain is the way in which they express their weakness. In colds the blood absorbs poison from the mucous surfaces, and the poison irritates the nerves and produces pain. In rheumatism, malaria and the grip, the poison in the blood produces like discomfort. In indigestion the gases from the impure matter kept in the system effect the blood in the same way.

The ordinary headache-cures at best give only temporary relief. They deaden the pain but do not drive the poison out of the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on the contrary thoroughly renew the blood and the pain disappears permanently. Women in particular have found these pills an unfailing relief in headaches caused by anaemia.

Miss Stella Blocker recently said: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did me a great deal of good. I had headache nearly all the time. After I had taken three boxes of these pills I became entirely well."

"How long had you suffered?" she was asked.
"For several years. I can't tell the exact date when my illness began for it came on by slow degrees. I had been going down hill for many years."

"Did you have any other ailments?"

"I was very weak and sometimes I had fever. My liver and kidneys were affected as well as my head."

"How did you come to take the remedy that cured you?"

"I saw in a southern newspaper a statement of some person who was cured of a like trouble by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My physician hadn't done any good, so I bought a box of these pills. After I had taken one box I felt so much better that I kept on until I became entirely well."

Miss Blocker's home is at Leander, Louisiana. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists. Besides headache they cure neuralgia, sciatica, nervous prostration, partial paralysis and rheumatism.

Co., belonging to the estate of the late Ely Peck, for $8377.87. It is mentioned in the petition and the order that the shares were appraised on November 4, 1903, at a value of $5320. The increase in the value of Pioneer stock in eighteen months is thus shown to be nearly 1-1/2 per cent.

CYCLOMERE TRACT CASE.

Judge Robinson will sit today for taking the evidence of plaintiff in the foreclosure suit of John F. Hackfeld against C. S. Desky, trustee, and W. Wolters, relative to Cyclomere tract, Kewalo. Mr. Hackfeld is about to leave the Territory. After his evidence is obtained the case will be continued until the return of Judge Robinson from his projected visit to the mainland.

MADE TEST LOOK FOOLISH.

Colonel Jones, the senior stenographer of the Judiciary, who has served in the higher courts of Hawaii for more than fifteen years in that capacity, was the first to take the examination required by the law of 1903. He made the prescribed test of 160 words a minute look foolish, as the following certificate on file shows:

"This is to certify that in accordance with the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii entitled 'An Act fixing the qualifications of and providing for an examination of official reporters of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii,' J. W. Jones has this day written in my presence at the rate of two hundred and fifteen words per minute for five consecutive minutes, upon matter not previously written by or known to him, immediately read the same back and transcribed the same plainly and with accuracy. I do therefore appoint said J. W. Jones to the position of official reporter of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit."

"Witness my hand and the Seal of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, Territory of Hawaii, this 4th day of May, 1905."

(Seal) "W. J. ROBINSON,
Third Judge, First Circuit Court."

TO KEEP HER DAUGHTER.

Wilhelmina B. Hall yesterday sued for a restraining order to prevent her husband, J. K. Hall, from taking their daughter, Thelma, away from the Territory; also for the payment of an attorney's fee and temporary alimony, under the petitioner's libel for divorce filed on March 30. The return day is Monday next.

COURT NOTES.

A directed verdict for the defendant was found in the ejectment case of Leialoha K. Ai and W. R. Castle, trustee, against Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., before Judge Lindsay yesterday forenoon.

Eva Hammer, executrix of the estate of the late Flora Levey, has filed an inventory showing the value of the estate to be $1891.70.

W. B. Jones moves to quash the citation procured against him by Rebecca Kealakai, guardian of Anna K. Jones, a minor, to produce certain papers.

Plenty of Others.

Agent of a Charitable Society.—But if your husband is interested in building operations, as I understand you to say he is, how do you happen to be in destitute circumstances?

Poor Woman.—That's just the reason why. He doesn't do anything but stand on some sidewalk downtown and watch 'em building skyscrapers on the other side of the street.—Chicago Tribune.

WILL BEGIN
NEXT MONDAYMr. Highton Preparing
Papers in County
Act Fight.

"I will not begin the County Act proceedings before next Monday," said Attorney Henry Highton yesterday. "I find that it will be impossible to make a move before that time—and it may even be a few days later than that."

And so ends the hope some of the political politicians had begun to cherish of avoiding the antagonisms that always come from a fight in the primaries. For the boys will have to come out in the open and declare themselves, to an extent, at least, and the men of ambition who are declared against will naturally whet their knives and put them away for the next time.

As for the County Act litigation, there seems to be some doubt whether it will be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States, after all. However, it is extremely probable that it will be, as neither side would be satisfied with anything less than a final determination of the validity of the act by the highest court in the land. And, if it is carried to the United States Supreme Court, there may and there may not be a decision in time to avoid the expense of an election—and its final antagonisms.

The effort to have the Legislature appropriate $3000 to pay the cost of the legal battle for the act, however, is not meeting with a great deal of encouragement. The matter of economy stands in the way, for one thing. The Governor is believed to stand in the way, for another. And, lastly, statesmen are asking what is to be gained by this lavish expenditure of money? Both the Commissioners who have been asked to aid the Attorney General's Department in the defense of the act have expressed their entire willingness to serve without pay. They were told when asked to serve that there was no money available to pay them for their work, and acquiesced in the arrangement then made. "The Territory needs all the money that it has, and more, and while the attorneys would without doubt accept a handsome fee if it were forced upon them, it is neither good business policy nor good sense to pay them when they are willing to work for nothing."

In the meantime, candidates and the talk of candidates go on bravely. The last was a rumor, current yesterday, that Senator L. L. McCandless would accept a nomination for Supervisor from Ewa, and Senator Achi a nomination for Supervisor-at-Large, if the honor was seen coming and neither could dodge it.

"No!" said Senator McCandless, with some emphasis, when asked about the matter yesterday. "Who told you that?"

"No, no," protested Achi, who was with his colleague at the time, and assumed to speak for both of them at first. "We are not candidates. We could not get the delegations. No, I am not a candidate at large. But, you ask the delegates. Well, if the people try to force a nomination upon me, I suppose I would serve. But I am not a candidate. And don't you put that in the paper."

So, that is the way the thing stands. McCandless is emphatically coy—and Achi is coy without so much emphasis. And if you are in politics, you know what that means.

Political interest, in the main, continues to center in the fight for the shrievalty, and it is believed by men in the know that Clarence Crabbe has the inside track, although Arthur Brown is very confident. Eddie Douthett will be the Republican nominee for County Attorney, it is likely, and there is a report that George W. Smith of Benson, Smith & Co., would make the run for Supervisor for Oahu. Also, an afternoon paper yesterday said that ex-Judge Gear was coming back—apparently having failed to get his drag into Mr. Herrin's Southern Pacific pond and that he would go into politics to the extent of making the race for Supervisor.

ROSENBERG OBJECTS TO SEEMING RIDICULE

M. Rosenberg has entered a complaint at the Advertiser office regarding what he deems an attempt to ridicule him in an evening paper for appearing to plead without counsel in the Federal court.

"I think I have the privilege of pleading my own case, especially in the United States court," Mr. Rosenberg said. "If I had a poor case I would hire an attorney, but I consider there is nothing at all against me."

"I don't see why I should be ridiculed for appearing for myself. I am not in the business of shipping sailors. I gave it up long ago in disgust, when I found it meant paying the commissioner and the police."

"It was because I went to the Governor to have the U. S. shipping commissioner removed that they have got up this case against me."

When arraigned yesterday morning Rosenberg said he did not see that he was charged with anything. Judge Dole took this as a demurrer and overruled it, when the defendant pleaded "not guilty" to the charge—that of making false statements about sailors' allotment notes.
